Biography

Soprano Julia Metry most recently debuted the mainstage role of Countess Almaviva in Mozart's Le nozze di Figaro with Harrower Opera Theater. Julia made her Italian debut in 2016 as Violetta Valery (La traviata) and Suor Genoveffa (Suor Angelica) with the Mediterranean Opera Festival in Caltagirone, Sicily. She was thrilled to return to the role of Violetta Valery with Capitol City Opera's mainstage production of La traviata in 2018. With CCO's Dinner and a Diva concert series, Ms. Metry performed the roles of Leïla (Les pêcheurs de perles), Musetta (La bohème), Maddalena di Coigny (Andrea Chénier), Michaëla & Frasquita (Carmen) and Fantine & Éponine (Les misérables) and was featured in CCO's Rising Stars Concert.

Other recent appearances include Estelle (The Stronger), a monologue opera, and Lucy (The Telephone) with Marble City Opera; Pamina (Die Zauberflöte) along with her Carnegie Hall debut in concert with Manhattan Opera Studio; Julie Jordan (Carousel) with Opera Breve Vocal Institute; Clorinda (La Cenerentola) with Festival of International Opera of the Americas in Brazil, and Mrs. Nordstrom (A Little Night Music) with Harrower Opera Theater.

Julia received her Master of Music degree in Vocal Performance from Georgia State University in 2014 where she portrayed the roles of Mary Warren (The Crucible), the Governess (The Turn of the Screw), and Amy March (Little Women). In 2012 she received a Bachelor of Arts in Music, Vocal Performance degree from Auburn University where she was seen as Fanchette (A Marriage by Lantern Light) and in scenes. A highly versatile performer, Julia was an entertainment cast member with the Walt Disney World Company from 2009–2015, and performed in an improvisation opera as an Advanced Artist with OperaWorks. Originally from Marietta, Georgia, Ms. Metry currently resides in Atlanta where she performs with the Atlanta Opera chorus and maintains a private voice and piano studio.
